

CONDEMNS M'CORKLE.

Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly Met Yesterday.

THE STATE LABOR COMMISSIONER.

Mr. Sydenstricker, a Greenbrier Farmer, Not Acceptable to Ohio Valley Labor Interests—A Resolution Passed Denouncing the Governor's Action—Other Interesting Business Transacted at the Meeting.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, held yesterday afternoon, was but lightly attended.

The Martin's Ferry had carrier's union reported delegates chosen to the assembly as follows: A. F. Walker, C. Coats.

Chairman Milligan of the arbitration committee reported the committee made three different attempts to see General Manager Jolly of the street railway company relative to the street railway strike troubles. President Dobler said he had seen Mr. Jolly, who had claimed he had lived up to his agreements made with the assembly.

The invitation to take part in the Columbian Fourth of July celebration was read by the secretary. Delegate Grogan did not like to have action taken by so slim an attendance and was in favor of having the invitation referred to the various local unions. Mr. Milligan said his local union had already endorsed the proposed celebration and agreed to take part in the parade.

The Leggett & Meyers tobacco boycott came up in the form of an official notice from the St. Louis A. F. of L. organization, that the boycott had been declared off. The assembly postponed action until its next meeting.

A communication was read from Hon. William L. Wilson regarding the candidacy of President Roman Dobler for immigration inspector. He promised to co-operate with Mr. Dobler's friends.

A letter regarding the same matter from Congressman Pendleton was also read.

A letter from the officers of local union No. 15, A. F. W. U., Martin's Ferry, regarding the withdrawal of their delegates to the assembly was read. It claims that they receive no benefits from membership in the assembly, but expresses surprise that the boycott on the Northwood glass works is proposed to be raised. It also goes on to say that the boycott has not been the success it was thought it would be. There was some discussion as to what to do with the communication, it being proposed that it be referred to the organization committee, also to the glassworkers' organization. One delegate was in favor of declaring the boycott off; if the glassworkers' union wants to stay out let them stay out. The communication was finally referred to the committee on organization.

A communication from the United Hatters of America relative to the demand in Wheeling for "scab" hats was read. The president spoke of the matter and said it was a common sight in Wheeling to see union men wearing the hats of a prominent boycotted manufacturer; he at the same time deplored this state of affairs. The communication was referred to the various locals, and the hatters' organization was requested to furnish the assembly with suitable literature regarding the "scab" hats and hatters.

Mr. Charles Morningstar reported that he and his colleague had visited the Kootz mines and had received sixty or sixty-five signatures for membership in the coal miners' union. He thought a number could be secured to re-enter the organization, but that some of them could not be induced to join the union of coal miners. The report of Delegate Morningstar was considered very encouraging, and the committee was continued.

Secretary Salsbury said that at the next meeting committees to make arrangements for the Labor Day celebration should be appointed. One delegate was of the opinion that the appointment of committees should be postponed until after the big Fourth of July celebration. In this connection Mr. Grogan deplored the small number of members who are attending the meetings of the assembly. "We are dragging along very slow, and if we keep it up we will soon drag ourselves to death."

A motion was proposed instructing that letters be sent all delegates requesting the attendance of duty accredited delegates to the assembly. The motion prevailed.

THE LABOR COMMISSIONERSHIP.

A delegate offered a motion that Governor MacCorkle be condemned for his action in not appointing John Corcoran commissioner of labor. The law providing for the labor commissioner, it was said, was hatched in the assembly, and the law stated that the commissioner must be identified with labor interests. "Not a druggist," said another delegate.

There was considerable discussion regarding the motion, and one delegate wanted to know what effect the passage of such a motion would have. Another answered that it would have effect enough. "The governor may have the bee in his bonnet for another office, and labor organizations do not forget."

"They do when they go to the polls," said another.

Another delegate was in favor of a resolution condemning the governor's action, which, though wrong, might have been taken conscientiously.

The following resolution was finally adopted: Resolved, That the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly do hereby denounce the action of Governor MacCorkle in failing to comply with the law creating the office of state labor commissioner, after his attention was called to the matter by the assembly. The assembly feels aggrieved that the governor appointed a man as labor commissioner who has never been identified with organized labor, except as a member of the Farmers' Alliance. Mr. Sydenstricker of Greenbrier county, who was the successful candidate, is a farmer and politician, who was a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

After the passage of the resolution, the assembly adjourned.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES

At Mrs. Hart's School last Friday Evening. A Fine Programme.

The closing exercises of Mrs. Hart's school took place on Friday in the school chapel. Though the occasion was altogether informal, quite a number of the patrons and friends of the scholars were present. After a brief parting address to the school by the principal, the following programme was rendered by the pupils: Recitation by Miss Mattie Ott, "The Chambered Nautilus"; recitation in German by Miss Augusta Bonheim; essay, "Our Postal System," Miss Ada Jepson; "Isabella Enthroned in America," Miss Flora Stifel; "Class History," Miss Hannah Bonheim; "The Indian, a Human Being," Miss Sue Stifel.

"The Compensations of School Life," by Miss Julia Savage, was written in a humorous vein that evinced both the genius and scholarship of the author.

At the close of the exercises certificates of scholarships were awarded the following young ladies:

Academic department—Miss Ada Jepson, Miss Annie Westwood, Miss Flora Stifel, Miss Elizabeth Garden, Miss Julia Savage, Miss Jennie Jepson, Miss Mattie Ott, Miss Mary Paul, Miss Hannah Bonheim, Miss Laura Caldwell, Miss Laura Dalzell, Miss Bessie Patterson and Miss Etta Harper.

Grammar department—Miss Sue Stifel, Miss Nellie Stifel, Miss Jessie Wheat, Miss Katherine Hughes, Miss Dorrie Hubbard, Miss Mary Simpson, Miss Ella Brice, Miss Genevieve Holliday, Miss Evelyn Jepson, Miss Edna McCourtney and Miss Edith Brannen.

A pleasant feature of the exercises was the presentation of a lovely basket of flowers to Mrs. Hart by the members of the Tyrocinian Literary society.

At the close of the programme Rabbi Bonheim addressed the school in a few well chosen words of encouragement, after which he offered prayer and pronounced the closing benediction.

The third annual session of the Hart's school will open Monday, September 18, 1893.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats. The River Interests.

The dam at Davis Island is not yet raised, but it is announced it will be taken up to-day.

The Twenty-fourth street ferry boat has been taken to the docks at Sistersville for repairs.

The Den Hur will leave at 11:30 o'clock this morning for Parkersburg and way landings.

Dan, Lacey, formerly clerk on the Hudson, will be in charge of the office of the Scotia on her present trip.

The excursion steamer Mayflower left Pittsburgh Saturday for Cincinnati, where she will enter the Coney Island trade.

The Liberty went up to Steubenville Saturday night and brought down a Sunday excursion of Turners from that town, numbering about 150. It was an orderly affair.

The popular Scotia is today's Cincinnati packet and is scheduled to leave at 8 a. m. She has a good trip, both passengers and freight, in sight.

A meeting of the new Pittsburgh packet line will be held to-day at Pittsburgh for the election of five directors of the company, and complete minor details of the organization.

On account of low water on the Muskingum, the Annie Laurie is not going through to Zanesville. Unless there is high water on that stream she cannot go through until the broken dam at Stockport is repaired.

Engineer Hanley of the United States steamer Goldenrod, has not used the doctor on that boat for months. The boilers are supplied with an ejector, as used on locomotives, and it saves fuel, does the boat a cent since he has used it.

Yesterday's departures included Annie Laurie for Muskingum river, 4 a. m.; Ben Hur, Lizzie Jay and Keystone State, all for Pittsburgh between 5 and 8 a. m.; C. W. Batchelor for Cincinnati, and Courier for Parkersburg at noon. The rule of the day was heavy trips, especially in passengers.

River men generally are opposed to Lieutenant Colonel Stickney's plan for the improvement of the river at Logstown; he favors a V-shaped dam, while the river interests support the plan for one on the plan of the dam that was destroyed some time ago. It is thought General Comstock and Major McKenzie will support the latter plan.

Capt. Ellison came down by rail from Portsmouth in advance of the Hudson. He made a final farewell to the decks he has trod almost continuously the last seven years last night, and it was like parting with an old and tried friend. Capt. Robert Agnew, one of the youngest commanders on the western waters, assumed command on her departure. Capt. Ellison becomes superintendent of the new stock company, with offices in this city, at a public landing.—Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.

ADOLF LALLOX, carriage manufacturer, 119 Carroll street, Buffalo, N. Y., states: I was troubled with nausea of the stomach, sick headache and general debility. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me.

"I could not sleep last night for the nasty bug bugs," is a remark frequently heard, but would not have been heard, had Bugine been in use.

TO RECEIVE GEN. WEISSERT.

The Arrangements Completed at a Meeting Saturday Night.

Another meeting of the committee to arrange for the reception of Gen. Weissert, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., on his visit to Wheeling this month, was held at the G. A. R. hall Saturday evening, J. H. Burt presiding and Mr. John Wise acting as secretary.

It was decided that invitations be extended only to old soldiers and their families, and all of these, whether members of the G. A. R. or not, are expected to be present to greet the commander in chief, as this is in the whole history of the G. A. R., but the third visit to this department by a national officer. The first was about ten years ago, by Commander Kountz, and the other by Commanding General Alger.

The following were appointed as a committee of reception. They will be in charge of Senior Vice Commander F. H. Crago, and will wear their regulation badges:

Holiday Post—C. T. Reed, Richard Robertson, J. M. Ephlin, John L. Wise, G. W. Clifton, John Icker, Robert S. Taylor, J. M. Genter, A. Stump, W. L. Gilbreath, Levi Bachner, Robert Wilson, Dr. C. F. Ulrich, B. S. Dovenor, George Caldwell, Thayer Melvin.

Hancock Post, Benwood—Josiah Sinclair, Isaac V. Barton, Past Commander Stewart, William Kellar, Charles Bloom, William Whitehead and Comrades Fitzgerald, Pelly and Altmeyer.

Stephens Post—Commander J. A. Arkle, J. H. Burnett, Jacob Honecker, J. N. Pritchard, Thad Vanderhoof, A. L. Ray, J. L. McCready, Henry Goetze, Thos. Fowler, Henry Gebhart, Phil Kallorbach, Jno. L. Powers and Joseph Wheeler.

J. L. Wise, Jacob Honecker and I. V. Barton were appointed a committee to secure coffee, sandwiches, etc., to be served by the ladies of the three relief corps.

The committee adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening, by which time it is thought the date of Gen. Weissert's visit can be definitely known.

The Faults and Follies of the Age

Are numerous, but of the latter none is more ridiculous than the promiscuous and random use of laxative pills and other drastic cathartics. These wrench, convulse and weaken both the stomach and the bowels. If Hostetter's Stomach Bitters be used instead of these no-remedies, the result is accomplished without pain and with great benefit to the bowels, the stomach and the liver. Use this remedy when constipation manifests itself, and thereby prevent it from becoming chronic.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons' Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and now that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and General Debility, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, and none of them have more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.
